- Cost: $200 per person (includes meals, lodging, and activities)

What to Bring

- Sleeping bag, pillowcase, and towels – Bring warm bedding for chilly winter nights.
- Warm clothing – Include layers such as sweaters, thermal wear, gloves, scarves, hats, and waterproof boots.
- Toiletries: toothbrush, toothpaste, soap, shampoo, hairbrush, deodorant, and other personal care items.
- Reusable water bottle – Stay hydrated throughout the day.
- Coat and snow gear – Snow pants, jacket, boots, and mittens for outdoor winter fun.
- Comfortable indoor shoes or slippers – For use inside the cabins.
- Sneakers: for indoor wall climbing and indoor sports activities
- Board or card games – Educational or cooperative games to share with friends.
- A positive attitude and an open heart – be ready to learn, pray, and make lasting friendships!

What Not to Bring

- Electronic devices (cell phones, tablets, computers, smartwatches, gaming consoles, etc.) – This retreat is a time to disconnect and focus on faith, friends, and fellowship.
- Headphones, earbuds, or portable speakers – Let's enjoy the sounds of nature and each other's company instead.
- Fireworks, weapons, or sharp objects – Safety comes first for everyone.
- Alcohol, tobacco, vapes, or any illegal substances – These are strictly prohibited.
- Inappropriate clothing – Please pack modest, weather-appropriate attire suitable for an Orthodox Christian environment.
- Makeup or excessive jewelry – Keep things simple and focused on inner beauty.
- Valuable items or large amounts of money – The camp provides everything needed; we don't want anything lost or damaged.

- Food, snacks, or energy drinks – All meals and snacks will be offered on-site.

Meals: All meals will be freshly prepared on-site, and the camp cabins accommodate up to 12 people.
