All Saints Sunday

First Sunday After Pentecost

On the first Sunday after Pentecost, the Church celebrates All Saints Sunday. We honor all the saints—known and unknown—who loved God, followed Christ faithfully, and became shining examples of holiness. These holy men, women, and children came from different places and times, but all shared one thing in common: they put God first in their lives.

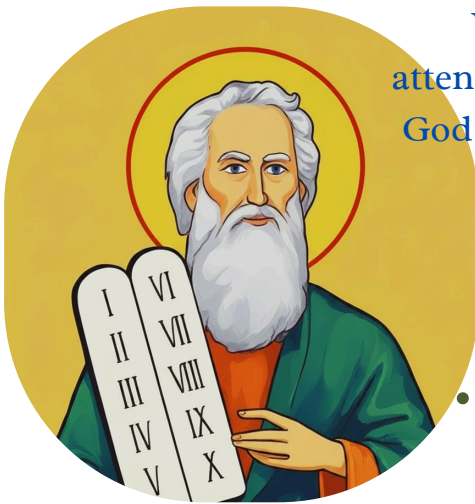

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT?

The saints show us what it means to live the Gospel every day. They remind us that holiness is not only for a few special people—it is a calling for every Christian. Through God's grace, we too can grow closer to Christ and become saints.

DO YOU KNOW HOW WE CAN APPLY THIS TODAY?

We can learn from the examples of the saints by praying, attending church, showing kindness, forgiving others, and trusting God in all circumstances. Every small step toward Christ helps us grow in holiness.

FOR CHILDREN

ACTION!

- Learn about your patron saint or choose a favorite saint this week. Draw a picture of that saint and write down one virtue you would like to imitate, such as kindness, courage, patience, or faith.

FOR PARENTS

- Share stories of the saints with your children and discuss how their examples can inspire your family. Encourage your children to see the saints as heavenly friends and role models who pray for us.

God calls each of us to be saints. By following Christ and living with faith, love, and humility, we can grow closer to Him every day.
